A note to our statewide training partners from CalOES during this difficult time. The safety, security, and well-being of students and staff is our number one priority at California Specialized Training Institute (CSTI). As the State continues to address concerns surrounding the Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19), we are closely following events and public health recommendations surrounding the outbreak and spread of COVID-19.

To our Clients:
We will be happy to reschedule your program at a later date. Please continue to coordinate with your assigned course manager at CSTI.

To our Students:
If you were accepted into a class that has been cancelled, we will do our best to secure an acceptable slot for you in a future class. Please monitor available course offerings via your Learning Management System access or contact one of our registrars at CSTIRegistration@caloes.ca.gov.

CDP Training Courses
Thank you for your continued patience and flexibility over these past few months as the nation navigated its response to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. In March, FEMA suspended in-person, campus-based training delivery. FEMA plans to re-open training campuses on a limited basis, effective August 2, 2020. You are receiving this message as you are scheduled to attend upcoming, on-campus training. FEMA continues to monitor conditions and will adhere to state and local guidance and restrictions. FEMA will announce any necessary changes to your course no later than the Thursday prior to the week of your scheduled course.

The CDP continues to collaborate with other first-responder partners and agencies to help communities build and sustain capabilities. For information on these and other CDP training opportunities, go to https://cdp.dhs.gov/find-training and click on the blue “View Virtual Classroom and Webinar Opportunities” button to get more information and the schedule.

Our top priority remains the health and safety of FEMA employees, instructors, students, and visitors on campus, without compromising instruction quality and the student experience. If you are unable to comply with the precautions for any reason, contact us to reschedule your training.

If you have questions, please contact the CDP training coordinator, fema-westregion@cdp@dhs.gov or 866-213-0548. Thank you.

Online Courses
AWR-341 W IED Awareness and Security Procedures:

AWR-187 W Terrorism and WMD Awareness in the Workplace 2019:
This 30-minute, Web-based "Terrorism 101" course prepares learners to successfully recognize, report, and react to potential terrorist incidents. In the first two lessons, learners develop a broad understanding of terrorism, including a definition of terrorism as well as examples of terrorist groups and targets.

MGT-433-W Isolation and Quarantine for Rural Communities:
provides individuals with the general knowledge necessary to begin planning for situations requiring the isolation and/or quarantine (I&Q) of a large portion of local, rural populations. This self-paced, web-based course will educate learners on I&Q in a modern context, discuss legal and ethical issues associated with I&Q, and present preparedness, planning, response, and support considerations. In addition, Isolation and Quarantine for Rural Communities will address communication strategies as well as I&Q resources.

AWR-328-ABT All Hazards Preparedness for Animals in Disasters:
This is the web-based portion of AWR-328 All Hazards Preparedness for Animals in Disasters, to be completed prior to attending the instructor-led delivery.

MGT-335-W Event Security Planning for Public Safety Professionals:
This self-paced, Web-based course is designed to provide planning and management-level skills to officers from state and local law enforcement agencies. Participants will be provided with the essential skills and knowledge to understand the importance of and the need for planning and managing security for special events, and to identify guiding principles for special-events security.

AWR-208-W Dealing with the Media: A Short Course for Rural First Responders:
Adapted from FEMA’s IG-290 curriculum, this 6-hour course provides rural first responders with skills needed to communicate with the public through the media. Examines roles of the media and the rural first responder/public information officer. Participants learn how to give print/electronic media interviews, write news releases, provide information at the scene, and how they fit into the joint information system.

AWR-148-W Crisis Management for School-Based Incidents: Partnering Rural Law Enforcement, First Responders, and Local School Systems:
This self-paced, Web-based course will educate rural law enforcement personnel as well as school administrators, teachers and staff to effectively respond to an emergency in a K-12 environment. The training will provide representatives of rural law enforcement departments and school systems with a foundation of knowledge and skills that will enable them to progressively establish a school-based emergency response plan and crisis management team through information-sharing and training.

STAS: Prevention through detection and deterrence is the cornerstone of California’s Homeland Security strategy. Prevention has at its core cooperation; sharing between agencies and across the full range of public safety disciplines.

Our state prevention strategy (State Threat Assessment System-STAS) has four Regional Threat Assessment Centers (RTACs) collocated with the four FBI Field offices in California, minimizing reporting conflicts, providing statewide coverage and facilitating coordination with our Federal partners.

The RTACs maintain a regional threat assessment focus for their area of responsibility and directly connect to each other and the State Terrorism Assessment Center in Sacramento to collaborate on strategic products and situational awareness.

Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Please make your request as early as possible, as last-minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill. For all requests, contact the POC for the particular course offering.
