First Responder Operations Decontamination: This course is designed to train First Responder Operations level personnel to perform technical decontamination during a response to a hazardous materials incident.

This is a hands-on course. Participants will don and doff Level-B personal protective equipment and will perform decontamination in functional exercises.

Course Length: 8 hours
Course Code: FROD
CA-Approval: CA-023-RESP

For the course schedule visit www.caloes.ca.gov/CSTI