

Summary of Laws and Regulations for Hazardous Material Spill / Release Reporting

The following information has been compiled as a summary to consolidate the legal requirements for the immediate verbal notification and written follow-up reporting of hazardous material spills/releases within California (as related to Health and Safety Code, Section 25510). Note that there are a variety of other federal and California spill/release laws that are not included in this summary. Local governments can have requirements that are more stringent than state and should be contacted for advice about reporting of hazardous material spills/releases in their area.

Section 1

Statutory Requirements for Hazardous Material Spill/Release Reporting

1. Excerpts from California Government Code (GC) Section 8589.7

a. OES Notifications

GC 8589.7. (a) In carrying out its responsibilities pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8574.17, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall serve as the central point in state government for the emergency reporting of spills, unauthorized releases, or other accidental releases of hazardous materials and shall coordinate the notification of the appropriate state and local administering agencies*² that may be required to respond to those spills, unauthorized releases, or other accidental releases. The California Emergency Management Agency*¹ is the only state agency required to make the notification required by subdivision (b).

(b) Upon receipt of a report concerning a spill, unauthorized release, or other accidental release involving hazardous materials, as defined in Section 25501 of the Health and Safety Code, or concerning a rupture of, or an explosion or fire involving, a pipeline reportable pursuant to Section 51018, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall immediately inform the following agencies of the incident:

- (1) For an oil spill reportable pursuant to Section 8670.25.5, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall inform the administrator for oil spill response, the State Lands Commission, the

Summary of Laws and Regulations for Hazardous Material Spill / Release Reporting

California Coastal Commission, and the California regional water quality control board having jurisdiction over the location of the discharged oil.

- (2) For a rupture, explosion, or fire involving a pipeline reportable pursuant to Section 51018, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall inform the State Fire Marshal.
 - (3) For a discharge in or on any waters of the state of a hazardous substance or sewage reportable pursuant to Section 13271 of the Water Code, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall inform the appropriate California regional water quality control board.
 - (4) For a spill or other release of petroleum reportable pursuant to Section 25270.8 of the Health and Safety Code, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall inform the local administering agency*² that has jurisdiction over the spill or release.
 - (5) For a crude oil spill reportable pursuant to Section 3233 of the Public Resources Code, the Office of Emergency Services*¹ shall inform the Division of Oil, Gas, and Geothermal Resources and the appropriate California regional water quality control board.
- (c) This section does not relieve a person who is responsible for an incident specified in subdivision (b) from the duty to make an emergency notification to a local agency, or the 911 emergency system, under any other law.
- (d) A person who is subject to Section 25510 of the Health and Safety Code shall immediately report all releases or threatened releases pursuant to that section to the appropriate local administering agency*² and each local administering agency*² shall notify the Office of Emergency Services*¹ and businesses in their jurisdiction of the appropriate emergency telephone number that can be used for emergency notification to the administering agency*² on a 24-hour basis. The administering agency*² shall notify other local agencies of releases or threatened releases within their jurisdiction, as appropriate.

2. California Health and Safety Code (HSC) Sections 25500-25519

a. Legislative Intent

HSC 25500. (a) The Legislature declares that, in order to protect the public health and safety and the environment, it is necessary to establish business and area plans relating to the handling and release or threatened release of hazardous materials. The establishment of a statewide environmental reporting system for these plans is a statewide requirement. Basic information on the location, type, quantity, and health risks of hazardous materials handled, used, stored, or disposed of in the state, which could be accidentally released into the environment, is required to be submitted to firefighters, health officials, planners, public safety officers, health care providers, regulatory agencies, and other interested persons. The information provided by business and area plans is necessary in order to prevent or mitigate the damage to the health and safety of persons and the environment from the release or threatened release of hazardous materials into the workplace and environment.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that this article and Article 2 (commencing with Section 25531) do not occupy the whole area of regulating the inventorying of hazardous materials and the preparation of hazardous materials response plans by businesses, and the Legislature does not intend to preempt any local actions, ordinances, or regulations that impose additional or more stringent requirements on businesses that handle hazardous materials. Thus, in enacting this article and Article 2 (commencing with Section 25531), it is not the intent of the Legislature to preempt or otherwise nullify any other statute or local ordinance containing the same or greater standards and protections.
